To-night that famous military drama of the "French Spy" will be produced at the Atheneum, in which Miss St. Clair will represent the three different characters in which the Spy appears. The other person-eges in the play will be most fitly represented. The amusing farce of "Ici On Parle Francols" (Here They Speak French) will follow, with Mr. James Lewis as Mr. Spriggins., It is a fine bill and will no doubt mand a full house.

An Invitation to the Citizens of Columbus.

SENATE CHAMBER, COLUMBUS, Feb. 1st, 1864. To the Citizens of Columbus:

The Ohio Senate, over which the undersigned has the honor of temporarily presiding, this day adopted the following resolu-

Resolved, That the President pro tempore of the Senate, invite the members of the House and the citizens of Columbus, to meet in the Hall of the House, on to-morrow evening, to devise measures for receiving the veteran volunteers on their arrival

You are, therefore, in pursuance thereof. invited to meet the members of the General Assembly, in the Hall of the House, on Tuesday evening, February 2d, at 7 o'clock, to consider the matters in said resolution.

S. HUMPHREYVILLE, President pro tempore of the Ohio Senate.

MISS MAJOR PAULINE CUSHMAN.-This young lady, something of whose remarkable history most of our readers may have read, will be in our city on Thursday next, and give an entertainment at Naughton Hall, assisted by Prof. Tosso, the eminent and popular violinist, and Prof. Gardner, the accomplished vocalist and pianist. Miss Cushman will give an account of her adventures in the Secret Service of the United States, and besides this she will sing several ballads, among them one composed expressly for her by W. C. Peters, the celebrated musical composer.

The following from the Cincinnati Com mercial will enable our readers to form some idea of Miss Cushman's history :

THE FEMALE UNION SPY .- Since the announcement made by General Rosecrans a few days since, at Mozart Hall, that Miss Pauline Cushman was in our city, the peo-ple, and especially the ladies, have been cu-rious to see and hear her. An opportunity to gratify this curiosity will be offered on Monday evening next, when, at the request of some prominent citizens, Miss Cushman will give an entertainment at Mozart Hall, assisted by talented musicians, who have volunteered their aid for the occasion.

The career of Miss Cushman, while in the United States secret service, was an exceedingly eventful one, full of romance and inberesting incident. Captured by the rebels. tried by a court-martial convened by order of the rebel General Bragg, she was condemned to be hung as a spy, and the sentence would doubtless have been executed but for the fact that Pauline Cushman when sentenced, was lying critically ill. and continued in a dangerous condition un-til our army moved upon Shelbyville, where she was re-captured by Generals Mitchell and Gordon Granger, commanding the ad-vance of General Rosecrans's army. As stated by General Rosecrans at Mozart Hall. Pauline Cushman was taken to Nashville and cared for; and now, for the first time since her recovery, appears before the pub-lic. She is a sprightly, talented actress, a pleasing vocalist, and a most beautiful young woman.

THE BRITISH PERIODICALS.-We avail ourselves of a recent notice in the New York World of these periodicals republished by Messrs. Leonard Scott & Co., of that

"Messrs. Scott & Co. have reprinted for years the best of the English periodicals, to the extent of five at least. They are: Blackwood's Magazine, the London Quarterly, and the Edinburgh, Westminster, and North British Reviews, which represent-the first, the Tory element in English politics; the second, the Conservative; the third, the Whig; reprints, which are made, we believe, from proof-sheets of the original English editions, and which are not far behind them in point of time, Messrs Scott & Co. have a sliding scale of prices, which is a follow:

For any one of the four Reviews. 830
For any two of the four reviews. 50
For any two of the four reviews. 70
For all four of the Reviews. 80
For Blackwood's Magazine. 30
For Blackwood and one Review. 50
For Blackwood and two Reviews. 70
For Blackwood and three Reviews. 90
For Blackwood and three Reviews. 100

If the lovers of good reading-the best of the kind in the world, both for instruction and entermainment-are not satisfied with terms like these (terms which might have been largely advanced, to meet the increased price of paper, printing, &c., but, happily for us, are not), why, nothing that we favor is experienced in his business, and is could say would satisfy them or help to reward the enterprise of Messrs. Scott & Co. benefit of their old subscribers, as well as those who may think of becoming new ones, we will state that the postage to all parts of the United States is now only fifty-six cents a year for the whole five publications, viz: twenty-four cents a year for Blackwood, and only eight cents a year for a Review. Ten cert during their forthcoming visit to our dollars and fifty-six cents for five periodicals and their postage for one year-truly, 'the force of cheapness can no further go.' Scott & Co.'s address is 38 Walker St.,

THE Fifty-third Ohio arrived here Saturday evening. The Fifty-third and Sixtysixth were out in the State House yard on Sunday afternoon on dress parade, and were much admired. It is said the Sixtysixth will soon leave for Knoxville.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—A special to the Post from Washington 1st, says: The new call for troops was rendered necessary by the recent advices from the South.
